Dr. Eric Rosser, Incoming Superintendent of the Rochester City School District

What:

Community Conversations with Dr. Eric Rosser

When:

Monday, April 28, 2025, 5:30 p.m.

Where:

Loretta Johnson Middle School
200 Genesee Street
Rochester, NY 14611

Details:

Join Dr. Eric Rosser for the first in a series of Community Conversations designed to foster open dialogue and build connections with students, families, staff, and community members. This is a unique opportunity to meet Dr. Rosser, hear about his vision for the Rochester City School District, learn about his leadership experience, ask questions, and share your thoughts.

Dr. Rosser was appointed by the Board of Education on March 6, 2025, to serve as the next Superintendent of Schools. With more than 24 years of experience in school turnaround, educational leadership, and operational management, Dr. Rosser has served in key roles across districts in Poughkeepsie, Buffalo, Atlanta, and Washington, D.C. His career has been marked by successful reform efforts and the development of strategic initiatives that have led to measurable improvements in student achievement and district performance.

This is the first of three planned community conversations. Additional events will be held in May and June before Dr. Rosser officially assumes the role of Superintendent on July 1. No registration is required. For interpretation requests, please contact the Board of Education office at boardofeducation@rcsdk12.org or (585) 262-8525.
