What we're working on...

I can't believe we're already at the end of November, and well into Marking Period 2! We're finishing up our unit on line and shape with an inspirational Zentangle design, and the amount of thought the students have put into their chosen quotes and designs has been awesome to see.

Before winter break we will start off our unit on color. We will be creating a landscape triptych using three, yes, three, different media! I'm looking forward to seeing the growth in skills that is sure to come from this next unit.
